

Summer Term Newsletter 6

10th July 2015

Dear Parents

A casual visitor to our website might be forgiven for thinking that, looking at our Newsletters, children at Trent spend their days playing sports, on school trips, cooking, painting and involved in musical performances! Whilst all this is certainly happening (and everyday is filled with smiles) I can assure you that there is an abundance of academic learning happening too!

One of the joys of working at Trent is the shared commitment that we all have (parents, teachers, support staff and children) to doing our very best for our lovely children. We want every one to be “the best that they can be” in every way: good all-rounders who are scholars, artists, performers and full of confidence. We nurture children to “serve one another in love” to be caring Christians, inspired by Jesus, to make the most of these abilities and to develop a habit of kindness and selflessness.

As you know, SATS results were released recently. These strong results don't just ‘happen’ at Trent, so many congratulations to every Y6 family, to Mrs Kakouris and Mrs Murray and mostly to the children – be proud of your success! Once again, these combined scores show Trent as one of the highest performing schools in Barnet.

The children will not be anywhere near the builders!

And lastly...

At our Leavers' Service this morning, I was struck by the number of happy faces and by how much every child has grown, physically as well as emotionally "Not just on the outside, but also on the inside..." as we say. The staff have all worked with dedication and commitment through the year and I know you will join me in thanking them all: our fabulous teachers and teaching assistants, lovely Julie and cheeky Mr Gridley. We are a happy, hard-working team and I'm sure the children know this! Thank you for your trust and support, and your many acts of kindness and generosity. I hope and continue to pray that together, school and home, we make the experience of being a child at Trent the best experience of learning, rich in laughter.

My thoughts and prayers to each family for a restful and replenishing Summer break.

With my best wishes Mrs Louise Yarwood
